Senior Citizen Tuition Waiver

In compliance with the S.C. Code of Laws, SECTION 59-111-320, Persons age sixty and over may attend classes without payment of tuition.

State-supported colleges and universities, and institutions under the jurisdiction of the State Board for Technical and Comprehensive Education, are authorized to permit legal residents of South Carolina who have attained the age of sixty to attend classes for credit or noncredit purposes on a space available basis without the required payment of tuition. Such persons must meet admission and other standards deemed appropriate by the college, university, or institution.

The College will waive the tuition cost, but all other charges relating to the cost of taking the course (fees, books, and supplies) will be the responsibility of the senior citizen. Senior Citizens must register during the established Add/Drop periods for each term to take courses under the tuition-waved procedure.

Anyone who meets these qualifications may receive free tuition at Orangeburg-Calhoun Technical College.
